

Chapter 4: Using singular and plural in sentences.

Directions: Each short Latin sentence has an English verb or noun in parentheses.

1) Give the Latin word in the correct number and case. 2) Translate.

Remember:

Number = Singular or Plural

Case = Accusative or Nominative

Example:

(girls) fabulas narrant.

puellae

The girls tell a story

1. puellae ad pueros (run).

2. (fields) magni sunt.

3. tandem Quintus (friends) videt.

4. miseri pueri in ludo (sleep).

Class work

5. (many women) ad casam veniunt.

6. colonus (big field) curat.

7. pueri ludum (approach).

8. (we see) eos.

9. filiae lente (work).

10. Scintilla cibum (to the women) mittit.
